3. Presentation – AI, Work, and the Future of the Workforce
We are entering one of the most significant shifts in the history of work. Artificial Intelligence is not just another technology, it is fundamentally changing how businesses operate, how decisions are made, and how quickly skills evolve. For workforce professionals, this moment represents both a challenge and an opportunity: to help individuals and organizations not just adapt, but thrive in a rapidly changing economy.

In this session, Jonathan Liebert will break down how AI is transforming business productivity, and why the speed of change is accelerating. More importantly, he will explore what this means for jobs, what roles are shifting, what skills are becoming essential, and how workforce leaders can guide others through this transition. Participants will gain clarity on how AI is reshaping work, develop practical strategies for adaptation, and leave better equipped to help build a workforce that is ready for what's next.
4. PPWFC Updates
